Road closed

Beach Blvd. between Bay Oaks and Ramoneda Street will still be closed while drainage improvements are being made.

Holiday changes

Waste Management of MS-Gulf Coast will be closed on Thursday, Nov. 26 for Thanksgiving Day.

Thursday's route for Waveland, Bay St. Louis and the unincorporated area of Hancock County will not run. Residents in these areas that are normally serviced on Thursday will be serviced instead on Saturday, Nov. 28.

Residents normally serviced on Friday will be on a regular schedule.

Annual academic competition

The eighth annual Academic Competition for Excellence is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 5 at St. Stanislaus.

Approximately 500 elementary school students, grades 5-7, representing 51 schools across Mississippi have registered to participate, according to Mike Gemelli, event coordinator.

Area participants include students from Bay Middle, Hancock North Central Elementary, Gulfview Elementary, St. Clare, Bay Catholic, Our Lady Academy, St. Paul, St. Thomas, and Delisle Elementary schools. Gemelli said, "Each school will send their top two students to take competitive tests in four subject areas: English, Science, Mathematics, and Social Studies. Trophies will be awarded for first, second and third places."

The event will include tours of the campus, lunch, hot air balloons and sky diving exhibitions.

South Beach casino plans sent to CMR

BY ED LEPOMA

Plans by property owners to lure a casino/resort complex to South Beach have once again been sent back to the state Commission on Marine Resources.

The Echo has learned that Judge Thomas Teel issued the ruling Oct. 16, almost a year to the date after environmentalist and citizens groups filed a suit to stop the proposed venture from going forward.

South Beach property owners, led by Jim Maness, had twice successfully gone before the CMR and gotten a 259-acre tract of beachfront property rezoned Industrial to allow for the casino development between an area known as Sand Bayou and Bayou Caddy. The latest approval came on a 4-3 vote.

Two remain hospitalized after wreck

BY ED LEPOMA

Two area men remained hospitalized Friday following a head-on collision on Hwy. 43 near the intersection of Hwy. 603 during heavy fog Thursday afternoon.

A Mississippi Highway Patrol spokesman said Don Farrar, 43, of Diamondhead and a 14-year-old passenger were driving in a 1989 Chevy Blazer southbound on Hwy. 43 around 8:45 p.m., and were hit by a northbound car which crossed the center line of the two-lane, busy highway.

The 1992 Dodge Stealth was being driven by Rickey Hutchinson, 23, of Picayune, according to the Highway Patrol.

All three were transported by American Medical Response

Joint effort results in seizure of 60 lbs. of pot

BY B.R. HAWKINS

A routine traffic stop on I-10 in Hancock County Monday night eventually netted law enforcement officials in two states 60 pounds of marijuana and a pound of methamphetamine.

According to Shane Corr, Director of the Hancock County Narcotics Task Force, Hancock County Sheriff's Deputy Lt. Tim Broder stopped 28-year-old Robert Dewayne Kelley of Columbus, Ga., Monday. As a result of the stop, Broder found 60 pounds of marijuana in Kelley's truck. He was charged with possession of marijuana with intent to distribute.

Corr said, once Kelley agreed to assist officers in making a controlled delivery to a location in Alabama, he contacted the High Intensity Drug Traffic Area (HIDTA), a federal task force located in Gulfport.

Working with HIDTA agents and officers from the Alabama Bureau of Investigations, officers arrested Henry Eugene Gay, 25, of Smith Station, Ala. Officers seized one pound of methamphetamine.

mine. Gay was arrested on federal charges.

"The investigation is continuing," Corr said. "Currently, we are focused on identifying and arresting the source of supply of the marijuana in Texas."

Corr said the arrests were excellent examples of federal, state, and local law enforcement officers and agents working together and sharing information and resources.

Agent Michael Hearty is in charge of the local investigation.

Marijuana confiscated

Hancock County Sheriff Deputy Lt. Tim Broder confiscated some 60 pounds of marijuana Monday during a routine traffic stop. Broder's stop led to officers arresting an Alabama man.

Pearl River residents to fight Flat Top site

BY ED LEPOMA

The unanimous vote to go forward with serious negotiations for a landfill off Flat Top Road in Hancock County was hardly recorded when Pearl River County residents vowed they would probably wage a battle against it.

Hancock County's Regional Solid Waste Authority held a special meeting Wednesday afternoon after announcing last week that the six-member board had unanimously selected a proposed site and developer. That decision came after the Authority met behind closed doors to hear proposals by Dr. Bennett York of Hattiesburg and Curtis Johnson of Waveland.

The Authority announced it would begin serious negotiations with York, and his daughter, Paige York-Losee, who have put together a 700-acre tract off Flat Top Road in Hancock County. The Yorks, who are chartered in Mississippi as Mississippi Waste of Hancock County, have built landfills in Durant, Miss., north of Jackson and in Tunica.

The Authority choose the Yorks over Johnson, president of Magnolia Disposal Services, Inc. Johnson already has the county's only permitted rubbish site off Hwy. 43 and Fire Tower Road where residents can currently dump rubbish and other debris. The landfill site he offered was composed of 660-acres, and would have been accessed off the Kiln-Picayune Road and Cuevas Town Road.

Tuesday's meeting was a

The chairman of Harrison County's Solid Waste District seems receptive about sending that county's garbage to Hancock County.

Members of Hancock's Solid Waste Authority held a closed-door session in Gulfport Thursday to meet with Harrison County officials, and put them up to date on negotiations that will get underway soon with Mississippi Waste of Hancock County.

Mississippi Waste is offering to permit, build and operate a combination rubbish site/landfill on part of a 700-acre tract of land in the buffer zone surrounding the Stennis Space Center near the Flat Top Community.

Landry fills Bay-Waveland school seat

BY B.R. HAWKINS

Steve Landry, former public works director for the City of Waveland, has been appointed by Bay St. Louis Mayor Eddie Favre to the Bay-Waveland School Board. Landry will fill the vacancy left by Frank Perniciaro, who recently re-signed to accept a position with the State Department of Education as attendance officer for Hancock County.

Landry, director of plant operations at Chalmette Medical Center, Chalmette, La., is a graduate of the University of New Orleans and holds a degree in civil engineering. He will sit on the board until a special election is held in March 1999.

"The mayor asked me to fill this position until the special election in March," Landry said. "I only intend to serve for the length of the appointment. I am not considering running for the position."

Exchange Club honors Cuevas' civic deeds

BY B.R. HAWKINS

Ellis C. Cuevas, editor and publisher of The Sea Coast Echo and executive vice-president of Bay St. Louis Newspapers, Inc., was honored by the Hancock County Exchange Club Thursday with the organization's annual Golden Book of Deeds Award.

In making the presentation, Regina Gleber said the annual recipient is often someone whose deeds are not known to the public and often done behind the scenes. She recognized Cuevas as such a doer of deeds.

Cuevas is a native of Waveland and a graduate of St.

Stanislaus. He served three years in the U.S. Army before beginning his newspaper career at The Echo in the production department in June, 1957. He joined the ad staff later that year, was named advertising manager in 1964, general manager in 1968 and editor and publisher in 1977.

Cuevas was named Hancock County Chamber of Commerce Citizen of the Year in 1991. Among his community involvements include past president and member of the board of directors over 20 years of the Hancock County Chamber of

Remember pets' needs during holiday travel

By Amy Woolfolk
MSU Ag Communications
When it comes time to pack up the kids, the luggage and the gifts for that trip to Grandma's house, do not forget about family pets and their special needs.

Dr. Richard Hopper, veterinarian with Mississippi State University's Extension Service, said that while most pets travel well, there are several things pet owners need to think about before leaving home.

"If you will be traveling through or staying in another state, find out if that state has special animal health requirements or requires that a copy of vaccination records accompany an animal," Hopper said. "This is especially important if you will be crossing the Canadian border. Ask a local veterinarian about requirements for states you will travel through."

While on the road, most pets should travel fine in a kennel for up to four or five hours, Hopper said. After that length of time, pets need to get out of the kennel for exercise and water. If a pet tends to get excited or sick when traveling, a veterinarian can prescribe a treatment for motion sickness.

"If your pet is on some type of medication, make sure you have enough to last the entire trip," Hopper said. "Your veterinarian can write a prescription for you to have in case of emergencies. For older pets with health problems, it is a good idea to keep copy of the animal's health records with you when you travel."

Hopper said pet owners need to think about overnight accommodations for animals during the trip. Ask about hotel pet policies before making reservations.

Hopper said not to worry if hectic holiday plans will alter a pet's feeding schedule.

Voting counts at Waveland Elementary

Kindergarten students of Mrs. McKenna's class took the opportunity to exercise their right to vote on election day. Instead of voting for a candidate, they chose to vote for the kind of cookies they would have for snack time. Each child voted by placing an "x" on a handmade ballot showing his or her choice of snack. The ballot was deposited in a closed ballot box, then they were counted. The children took their responsibility for voting very seriously and showed their natural feelings of joy and disappointment when the winner was announced.

MILITARY MENTIONS

LANCE CPL. HOYLE
Marine Lance Cpl. Wallace R. Hoyle, son of Sarah L. Hoyle of Diamondhead, recently reported for duty with 1st Maintenance Battalion, 1st Force Service Support Group, Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Hoyle's rotation to a new duty station exemplifies the worldwide assignability of Marines and Sailors. This flexibility allows our naval forces to protect U.S. national interests around the world while providing a visible deterrence for regional conflicts.

The 1993 graduate of Long Beach High School joined the Marine Corps in December 1996.

PVT. GARCIA
Army Pvt. Aristide C. Garcia has graduated from One Station Unit Training (OSUT) at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. The training included basic military training and advanced individual training (AIT).

The basic military trainee received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, physical fitness, first aid, and Army history and traditions.

During AIT, the soldier was trained as a combat engineer

Garcia is the son of Marie T. and Argile E. Garcia of Waveland.

Continue The Progress

An open letter to All the Citizens of Waveland.

I would like to clarify any concerns that you may have about my illness and health.

Before deciding to enter the race for re-election, I had a very in depth talk with Dr. Steven Curley, chief surgeon, oncology, M.D. Anderson Cancer Center, Houston, Texas. Along with my wonderful local doctors. Dr. Curley has been my attending physician at M.D. Anderson.

He has assured me, that I should have no problem campaigning for and finishing another four year term as mayor.

I wanted this assurance so that we would not have to put you the citizens of Waveland under any undo hardship with a special election during this term should you re-elect me as mayor. Of course there are no guarantees in life for anyone, we could be the victim of a fatal accident or a heart attack in the blink of an eye.

I ask you, the citizens of Waveland to re-elect me to a second term, so that we can continue the progress, and improve the standards and quality of life for all of our citizens in our beloved city of Waveland.

Thank you

"CUEVAS" QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

One of the things we do not want to think about during the holiday season is garbage, but garbage collection is a very important part of our everyday living.

On Thanksgiving Day, there will be no garbage pickup for some residents of Bay St. Louis, Waveland and the unincorporated area of Hancock County.

That day's garbage collection by Waste Management of MS-Gulf Coast will be on Saturday, November 28, according to a news release we have received.

Garbage normally collected on Fridays will be collected on Friday of that week.

There appears to be a severe epidemic of motorists driving on Bay St. Louis' streets with only one headlight operational.

I could not believe that in just the short distance from my office to home Wednesday night I met three one-eyed vehicles, one pickup and two autos.

This is really not a time of year to be driving around with one-eyed vehicles unless they are motorcycles. As most of you know, we are now in the foggy season and at times visibility is very bad.

It does not take too much to check and see if your headlights are operating correctly.

I am hoping motorists will take the time to check all the lights on their vehicles.

Motorists need to be reminded of the new four-way stops in Bay St. Louis.

Those who travel an area for any length of time get into a habit of no stop signs being at certain crossings, and they need to remind themselves when traffic flow is changed.

The two new four-way intersections in Bay St. Louis are North Second St. at Ulman Avenue and Bay Oaks at Third Street.

An old saying for our area is that the chirping of robins means that we can get our winter woolies out, as the cold weather is not far behind.

On Friday morning I noticed a small flock of robins in the tress behind my house.

Usually the robins arrive just before the winter cold comes in.

Thus far this year we have been lucky as it has not been too cool, yet I am ready for cooler temperatures. Friday was just like a summer day.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Minister says Christmas decorations lack Christ

To the Editor,

As a new resident of Hancock County, I was impressed by the Christmas decorations being installed on Hwy. 90 in Bay St. Louis, but as I continued to drive from Waveland to the Bay bridge, I was distressed to observe that not a single one of the decorations included any mention of Christmas or of Christ who is the root and source of all the Dec. 25 festivities.

The fault lies not with our civic authorities. They are bound by some federal prohibition which excludes any and all religious symbols from public property. Hopefully the federal will not demand removal of the angels beautifully portrayed in some of the decorations.

The residents in an area such as ours where almost 100 percent are believing Christians should have some rights in the matter.

Maybe we ought to raise the issue with those we elected to represent us in Washington.

'Diabetes is Serious' is still not being heard

To the Editor,

With recent advances in technology and new treatments available for the management of diabetes, it has become a priority for the Diabetes Foundation of Mississippi to teach people with diabetes how to manage their disease and achieve tight control.

The message that "Diabetes is Serious" is still not being heard. Over 1,700 people in Mississippi will die from its complications, such as heart and kidney failure and strokes. Many will suffer from blindness and lower limb amputations. Finally, the economic impact of diabetes costs our state nearly $1.6 billion annually in direct and indirect costs.

November is National Diabetes Month — a month long campaign to spread the word about the benefits of controlling blood sugar levels in an effort to keep them as close to normal as possible which helps to prevent the devastating complications.

In addition, we are trying to locate the 80,000 Mississippians with undiagnosed diabetes and make the 800,000 who are at risk aware of the warning signs.

Our mission is to provide hope through programs, services and research to all Mississippians affected by diabetes. As Mississippians we need to take diabetes seriously, and get aggressive about treating and diagnosing it.

Sincerely,
Joel Bourgeois

Bay St. Louis included in Southern Perimeter highspeed rail corridor

U.S. Sen. Trent Lott, Secretary of Transportation Rodney Slater and other official announced last Wednesday the designation of a southern Perimeter high-speed rail corridor during a press conference in New Orleans.

The corridor will include rail routes through several Mississippi cities, including Meridian, Hattiesburg, Bay St. Louis, Gulfport, Biloxi and Pascagoula.

At Lott's insistence, provisions for Wednesday's designation were included in the TEA-21 transportation bill which recently passed the 105th Congress.

"This designation is the first step toward implementing a high-speed rail system in the Deep South," Lott said. "Mississippi will be a major intersection of this corridor and our state's citizens will reap the rewards through greater transportation alternatives, increased rail traffic through our communities and better access to regional hubs."

The designated corridor will extend from Houston, Texas in the west through New Orleans to Jacksonville, Fla. in the East. Also part of the corridor will be designated north/south spur between New Orleans and Birmingham, Ala.

Mississippi Gov. Kirk Fordice, Meridian Mayor and Amtrak Board Member John Robert Smith, acting Amtrak CEO George Warrington, Administrator Jolene Molitoris, New Orleans Mayor Marc Morial and Lt. Gov. Kathleen Babineaux Blanco of Louisiana are also expected to participate.

Wednesday's designations could be followed by other southern corridor designations in the future. The press conference took place in the 2nd Floor Ballroom of Gallier Hall, 545 St. Charles Avenue.

EYES ON MISSISSIPPI

By Bill Minor

JACKSON—When 77-year-old John Glenn rocketed into outer space two weeks ago, he gave a lift to the entire nation, and with him soared the spirits of us septuagenarians.

What, of course, makes the Glenn voyage extra special is that he had been the first American to orbit the globe 36 years before. Remarkable, isn't it, that one man can twice become a national hero, and be such a nice guy along with it.

Not incidentally, this time when he went into space he was a member of the United States Senate.

Despite the snickering and the Jay Leno jokes that accompanied sending a geriatric-type into outer space, all Americans were proud and happy when Glenn held his own aboard the space vehicle and then came back to earth in good shape. Of course, there were critics about the value of sending an older person into space for testing, but much medical and scientific information has been gleaned from space flights over the past three decades and it is reasonable that Glenn's voyage may well open new insights into the aging process.

Some of us have not forgotten that John Glenn in the 1980s had offered his services to the nation as its president, but unfortunately he couldn't get off the launching pad. His presidential hopes had brought the Ohio senator to Mississippi several times and created a cadre of friends in this state, friendships that would last years afterwards.

This writer had the good fortune of first having met Glenn way back in March, 1962, only several weeks after his monumental flight into space, the occasion being the annual Gridiron Dinner in Washington, D.C., when journalists honored all seven of the original astronauts. I still cherish the dinner menu autographed by Glenn as well as his fellow astronauts.

As a journalist and also an admirer, I was delighted that Glenn came to speak at the Neshoba County Fair to give Mississippians a chance to meet him. The following year he came back, flying into Jackson as a hopeful for the Democratic presidential nomination. I made sure I was among the small number of reporters who came out to meet him at Jackson's Hawkins Field, and I remained around to talk with him later.

Glenn couldn't muster enough delegates to stay the course of the 1984 primary race, and made an abortive attempt in 1988, winding up with a healthy campaign debt. When he was still trying to pay off the debt, some friends here had Glenn come back in order to raise some money for him.

Even though I wasn't in a position to help with his debt, some friends asked my wife and me to attend a small luncheon with Glenn. It was a great occasion just to be in the company of an authentic, down-to-earth, American hero.

While Glenn the other day was giving dramatic proof to what older persons can accomplish, another guy also up in the septuagenarian class, Jimmy Carter, has come out with a new book (his fourteenth) entitled "The Virtues of Aging," which is valuable reading material for any older person.

The former president admits when he told some friends about the title of his book, they reacted skeptically about what could be the "virtues of growing old?" Carter makes a strong case for his title through examples of older persons' achievements and his own personal experiences.

Mind you, he had written the book even before Glenn made the most notable case for what older Americans can achieve.

Virtues of aging, Carter emphasizes, "include both the blessings that come to us as we grow older, and what we have to offer that might be beneficial to others."

Carter, at 74, is himself a remarkable example of how a man in his "second career," after being president of the United States, the most powerful figure in the free world, can well serve both his nation and humanity in momentous ways. As a tireless troubleshooter who has gone around the world to help resolve conflicts, from Haiti to Bosnia to Africa, Carter's contributions in the international field have several times put him on the short list for the Nobel Peace Prize.

And when not trotting around the world to stamp out conflagrations between nations, Carter, along with his wife, Roslyn, has been helping to stamp out disease and malnutrition in the Third World, and giving guidance to poor nations on producing vital foodstuffs.

Back home, he has been busy promoting human rights and democracy, and, with his own sweat, served as a primary backer of Habitat for Humanity, which now has spread now beyond his beloved Southland.

Though he no longer takes part in political battles, Carter does have some ideas about such things as fixing Social Security, which is so vital to the interests of older people.

Carter writes in "Virtues of Aging" that Washington politicians should brave even condemnation of the AARP and the Gray Panthers to make necessary changes to save the system. Among the changes, Carter says, should be a means test for more affluent Americans and even raising the age to receive Social Security payments.

You aren't going to find John Glenn or Jimmy Carter rocking and nodding on their front porch while there are still things to do.

Four-year campus Gulf Coast programs to be acted on in Jan.

The Board of Trustees for the Institutions of Higher Learning received a report from Commissioner Tom Layzell on issues and recommendations for Gulf Park programs. The board plans to take action in January on the future of Gulf Park programming.

Last month the board asked Commissioner Layzell to review a response submitted by the University of Southern Mississippi President Horace Fleming concerning the Gulf Coast study. Recently, the Attorney General issued an opinion concerning the University of Southern Mississippi Gulf Coast.

The commissioner presented a report to the board's Academic and Student Affairs Committee Nov. 18 detailing the pertinent recommendations from the Gulf Coast Study and an analysis of the current issues concerning Gulf Park programming along with recommendations for next steps.

The board asked for reports in order to take action in January on the following four recommendations:

1. USM should further develop its plans for new programs at USMGC and submit them for board review through established procedures. Plans for expansion of facilities, library resources and the Gulf Park site should also be developed for review by the board;

2. USM should elaborate on its proposal for the admission of a limited number of freshmen over a five-year period. More detail should be provided on projected costs, courses curricula and admission policies;

3. Board policies should be reviewed from the standpoint of what amendments would be necessary if the board was to decide to designate one or more sites on the Gulf Coast as a campus, or campuses, of USM and to authorize USMGC to offer lower division courses. A report on necessary amendments should be prepared for board review; and

4. The memorandum of understanding, and any other documents necessary to the creation of a multi-institutional center with USM as the lead institution, should be completed and submitted for board review.

Board members expressed the need to move ahead as quickly as possible on these issues and reports.

Bernard declared winner

BY BETSY GAGNET

Milton Bernard has been declared the official winner of the Democratic primary runoff for the Ward 1 alderman's seat in Waveland.

Bernard finished the race with 97 votes to beat opponent Jay Joseph Fountain who finished with 79 votes. The results were certified following a recount on Wednesday night and the counting of seven affidavit ballots.

Bernard now faces Republican candidate Rhonda Aime-Grant in the general election scheduled for Dec. 1.

Tideland money

Waveland to get additional funding

BY BETSY GAGNET

There will be more Tidelands funds than originally anticipated coming to the City of Waveland for fiscal year 1999.

Mayor John Mason announced at Tuesday's regular meeting that the city will receive $225,027 in Tidelands funds, approximately $35,000 more than originally allocated. The increase is due to additional revenue collected on Tidelands leases by the Department of Marine Resources.

Plans in Waveland call for the funds to be used for continued improvements to the Garfield Ladner Municipal Pier.

The Tidelands check will be presented to city officials during the dedication ceremony of the pier extension scheduled for Dec. 19.

In other news from Waveland, due to the city elections on Dec. 1, the first regular Board of Aldermen meeting in December has been rescheduled to Wednesday Dec. 2 at 4 p.m.

It will be the first meeting of the new administration who will be sworn in at 3 p.m. that day.

The board approved the mayor's signature on a $20,000 USDA (Natural Resources Conservation Service) drainage grant for Mollere Drive. The city is responsible for 25 percent ($5,000) of the total.

The board awarded the bid for a trencher/backhoe/trailer for $28,599 to Lee Tractor, to be paid for with proceeds from the city's $1.25 million general obligation bond money.

Ward 2 Alderman Jay Fleuret voted against the purchase, stating that in using bond money the trencher was being financed over 15 years, the length of the bond payments.

Jazmin Gargoum

Kiwanis nominates ambassador

The Kiwanis Club of Hancock County is sponsoring Jazmin Gargoum, who was selected by the Hancock High School administration, to participate in this year's Hugh O'Brien Youth Leadership Seminar as the "ambassador" from Hancock High.

Gargoum will attend the Mississippi Leadership Seminar May 28-30 at Millsaps College in Jackson with other outstanding sophomores from throughout the state.

Participants will meet with leaders in business, industry, government, education and the professions to learn about the free enterprise system and the democratic process.

The local competition was open to all high school sophomores. Criteria for selection included evidence of emerging leadership ability, cooperation, sensitivity to the needs of others, ability to relate to new pursuits and acquaintances, and the desire to learn and share knowledge and experience with others.

At the leadership seminar, one boy and one girl will be selected to attend the annual all-expense-paid, week-long World Leadership Congress. For more than 30 years, Hugh O'Brien Youth Leadership has conducted leadership seminars for high school sophomores throughout the United States, Canada and the Bahamas and Mexico.

Elect MILTON C. BERNARD

Thank You! Thank You!
Thank You!

I want to express my heartfelt thanks to the voters of Ward 1 for their vote of confidence Tuesday, November 17, placing me in the general election, Tuesday, December 1.

I again ask for your vote of confidence and if you did not vote, I urge you to please vote in the general election Tuesday, December 1. I am convinced that with your support and input we will move forward in the best interests of the City of Waveland.

Many voters have expressed a feeling of frustration regarding the way the voting area was set up this election. I have inquired into this same matter and know for a fact that it can be changed. As Alderman, I promise to explore all avenues to correct this situation, assuring that it does not re-occur in future elections.

As your Alderman, I will need everyone's continued support and input as we work together to change any matter negatively affecting our great city. Thank you again, and may God continue to bless our combined efforts.

Sincerely,
Milton

Bay Tiger Pride marching band attends festivals

The Bay High School Tiger Pride Marching Band recently attended two marching festivals. The band earned three out of four superiors at the North-Shore Marching Festival in Slidell.

Drum Major Beth Register and Assistant Drum Major Jenny Brack received a superior rating; Captain Randi Labee and the Guard received a superior rating; Captain Sean Sharp and the drum line received a superior rating, and the Tiger Pride Band received an overall excellent rating.

The following Saturday, the Tiger Pride Band attended the 12th annual Southwest Marching Festival in Tylertown. The drum majors and guard repeated their superior performance and the band and drum line received excellent ratings.

The marching band performed "A Blast from the Past." The show started with the number one song in September, 1964, "House of the Rising Sun," featuring a trumpet section.

The Tiger Pride Color Guard was then featured while the band performed the 1968 hit, "Inna-gadda-divida" by Iron Butterfly.

The percussion section was featured to the 60's instrumental chart, "Popcorn" with Jenny Brack and Brandi Travis on mallets.

The show's closing featured a trombone duet by Meaghan

Lloyd and Jennifer Scafid, "Sound of Silence."

Catchie Crider, band director at Bay High School, said, "It's hard to go to two festivals back to back, but we listened to the judges' comments from the first festival and really improved our scores at the following festival."

"Most people don't realize that band is a year-long activity and these students are practicing day after day. It takes a lot of dedication and a lot of pride to do well."

Band managers are Joseph Bell and Dianna Karlner. Band runners are Joanna Bilbo, Christina Bosch and Cierra Hackett.

Ezell Lee to run for district office

State Sen. Ezell Lee of Picayune has announced he is a candidate in the upcoming election for state Transportation Commissioner representing the Southern District.

Gov. Kirk Fordice has not yet set a date for a special election to fill the seat vacated by Commissioner Ronnie Shows, who was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in the November primaries, representing the state's 4th Congressional District.

Lee, a native of Hancock County who grew up in the Logtown community, is in his second term in the Senate representing Picayune's District 47. Before that, he served in the state House District 107, representing Pearl River, Stone, George and Jackson counties.

He coached football at Picayune and Hancock High Schools and also coached in Greene County.

Lee has a master's degree in school administration from William Carey College and an undergraduate degree from the University of Southern Mississippi.

Lee is scheduled to officially kick off his campaign with a benefit jambalaya dinner beginning at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 24, at the Kiln VFW on Hwy. 603.

Pass aldermen sidestep teen curfew; resolve fence fued

BY ED LEPOMA

Pass Christian's Board of Aldermen has sidestepped a controversial proposed teenager curfew, but resolved another impasse involving neighbors feuding over a fence in the historic district.

Mayor Billy McDonald and aldermen held a recess meeting Wednesday night, and Ward 2 Alderman Margaret Jean Kalif said she had decided to table a curfew ordinance after discussions with Chief of Police John Dubuisson.

Kalif said she was having problems "in my ward with young people hanging out and terrorizing people."

But, she said the police chief has promised to increase patrols in her ward, and she wants to see how that works out.

No vote was taken on the measure, but Ward 1 Aldermen Jeff Emerson said he would oppose a teenager curfew, "because it might be discriminatory to the good kids." Emerson said enough laws were in place to curb teenage loitering and violence, and he asked Chief Dubuisson to enforce the laws on the books.

The debate over whether to allow a property owner on Scenic Drive to install a field wire fence facing Second Street was heated.

The controversy has been brewing since July when Mrs. Audrey Bailey, who lives at 829 E. Scenic Drive, was turned down by the Historic Preservation Commission. Bailey's adjoining neighbor, Barbara Thompson at 811 E. Scenic Drive had objected to a chain link fence that was already erected, and the Commission directed Bailey to take it down.

The feud came before the Board of Aldermen during an August meeting, and both Scenic Drive residents were represented by individual attorneys. Following that meeting, the attorneys were asked to try and work out a compromise, and present a compromise proposal to the Commission.

At Wednesday's meeting, Bailey offered to erect a chain link fence on that portion of her nine-acre compound facing Second Street, and field wire fencing on the side of her property facing the Thompson compound and on the west side.

Kalif and Emerson wanted to resubmit the plans to the Historic Commission, but Ward 3 Alderman Michael Antoine said Bailey's change of plans had already been rejected by the Commission, and he was ready to put the matter to a vote.

"The Board needs to send a message that they are going to uphold the law," said Kalif. She asked one present Commission member, "What is the law?"

The Commissioner replied that the law was rather vague when it comes to the new type of field wire fence.

"It's neither allowed or prohibited," the Commissioner said. At-Large Aldermen Leo "Chiper" McDermott said he was ready to vote and would allow the fencing, and he was joined by Ward 3 Alderman Michael Antoine.

After some discussion by Board attorney Malcolm Jones, Antoine moved to allow the fencing, and the motion passed 3-2. Ward 4 Aldermen Vonnie Bodenschatz joined McDermott and Antoine, with Emerson and Kalif voting against.

Another Pass Christian property owner came to the Board to complain about his neighbor in Timber Ridge.

Godofredo Calawor said his neighbor on Cook Street "had live poultry, three head of cattle, 15 cats and several dogs, and they were becoming a nuisance."

The city's Code Office was directed to look into the complaint.

In other business, John Campton, the city's consulting engineer, received approval to pay U.S. Tank Company $9,605 more for painting the city's two elevated water towers. Campton said a mistake was made in initial estimates because he thought both tanks were 200,000-gallon tanks, but, in fact, one had a 300,000-gallon capacity, thus the extra cost.

REFLECTIONS ON LIFE

By Father Jerome
LeDoux, SVD

Could the people of this nation of immigrants come to any other conclusion but that they support ethnic diversity? So how could the recent, positive poll findings of DVG, Inc., a New York polling firm, be at all surprising to anyone?

It is indeed no surprise that 91 percent of college students believe that, since our society is multicultural, the more we know about one another, the better we get along.

Dipping slightly, 75 percent believe a diverse student body has a positive effect on the education of students. Down again slightly, 69 percent feel that campus activities emphasizing diversity have more of a positive effect on students.

Making a leap from students to other people, for years we have read and heard the same views from Americans in their family, school and church setting. However, there is a huge chasm between what people believe and what they do.

Once again, this rude truth fell on us here with crushing force Sunday, Oct. 11 at St. Augustine Church. Our faith community held its first homecoming celebration with a Friday social, Saturday continental breakfast and Sunday Mass.

All former pastors, ministers, teachers and parishioners were invited to participate. Scanning the crowd in church, it was painfully obvious that, except for those who had at some time ministered in the black community, whites were no-shows.

A sprinkling of Carmelite nuns and a few other token Caucasians were the sole representation of the majority race. Now why do you think this sort of thing happens in the ideal context of a Christian setting and celebration?

Except that we know better as Christians, it would almost seem to be a racial curse stemming from the origins of St. Augustine Church. Requested of Bishop Blane by free blacks and built in one year, this church was dedicated in 1842.

In today's jargon, it was a "black" church, since most of the members, counting numerous slaves, were black. That came about during the "War of the Pews" when free blacks out-hustled whites in buying up the pews.

Homer Plessy, a black member of St. Augustine Church, sat in the white section of a train in 1892, triggering arrest and the famous case, "Plessy v. Ferguson," culminating in the U.S. Supreme Court approval of segregation in 1896.

"Legislation is powerless to eradicate racial instincts or to abolish distinctions based on physical differences."

Fifty-eight years of segregation followed, during which many blacks left the South and whites flooded into places like St. Augustine, changing it into a "white" church.

Finally, after the signing of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, open seating "chased" the whites out, and St. Augustine once more became a "black" church.

Such church ping-pong smacks of everything earthly and material, but of nothing of a believer, of a Christian.

After all these years, the ghost of segregation still haunts America on all fronts, even in the unthinkable venue of the church. There is no longer segregation, since that is legalized discrimination. There is now simply discrimination.

Not evil of itself, discrimination is a very human phenomenon which we all practice and experience in the choice of friends, spouses, business and recreation partners.

Like is attracted to like in every way and at every level, beginning with blood relationship, ethnic/racial origins, outward appearance, nationality, birthplace, neighborhood, occupation, religion and place and manner of worship.

It is understandable in these days of radical social and neighborhood upheavals that some of the reluctance of whites to come to the inner city has to do with fear. But in broad daylight that

'Pig Bowl' slated Dec. 5 at 4 p.m.

BY B. R. HAWKINS

Kickoff of the annual Pig Bowl is set at 4 p.m., Friday, Dec. 5 in the St. Stanislaus Football Stadium. Admission is one new toy for the Toys for Tots campaign.

The first Pig Bowl was played in Mississippi in 1996 at the St. Stanislaus field. The outcome was a Mississippi victory 9-8. The second game was played in Louisiana. The outcome was similar, a Mississippi victory of 20-0.

"But, even more important than the score," Karl said, "was the fan turnout and the amount of toys collected for the children. People really like watching this game."

The game has become an annual event alternating from year to year played in Mississippi then Louisiana to benefit the children who otherwise would have an empty Christmas.

Preceding the game at 2 p.m., a youth football game will be played.

Two wildlife areas closed to hunting

Sky Lake Wildlife Management Area in Humphreys County and Yockanookany Wildlife Management Area in Attala County are closed to all hunting during the 1998-99 hunting season, according to the Department of Wildlife, Fisheries and Parks.

The boundaries on these areas are being marked, and public access is being acquired on one of the areas, according to District 3 Biologist Jeff Gainey.

A financial formula for retirement

A lot is written about planning for retirement. But what do you do when you get there?

Retirement planning is never finished. It begins with building assets, continues with helping them grow, and winds up with preserving your investments and enjoying the fruits of your labor. Each phase requires vigilance and fine-tuning.

Adjusting your portfolio for retirement ideally should begin about five years before you retire. Assets not protected by retirement tax shelters, such as employer-sponsored plans and IRAs, should be repositioned gradually to avoid immediate heavy tax burdens. Also, gradual readjustment could help you avoid any large movements during a bad market.

When you're closer to retirement and in your retirement years, look for total return, or growth of principal combined with income. For example, a stock that pays a 3 percent dividend and appreciates 8 percent in value provides an 11 percent total return.

Compare that to a bond or Treasury security paying 5 percent interest. Fixed-income securities offer no opportunity for growth if held to maturity, so in this case your total return is 5 percent.

The reliability of fixed-income investments is important in retirement, but it's also important for your assets to grow. That 5 percent return won't buy as much five years from now as it does today. Only through growth will you be able to keep up with inflation.

Another consideration as you begin retirement is to have a cash cushion to get you through at least one year without disturbing your investments. This lets your investments, particularly your new ones, grow before you tap them for regular income.

FINANCIAL FOCUS

Submitted by Craig Foster
Edward Jones Co.

How much income you can reasonably expect in retirement depends on the amount of money you have, how much income you need and how much risk you're willing to take.

For example, assume a couple with a nest egg of $500,000 distributes their assets among a variety of investments. Five percent, or $25,000, in a money market fund paying 4 percent would yield them $1,000 annually. More important, they have immediate cash for emergencies.

The couple could invest 35 percent of the total, or $175,000, in a diversified portfolio of high-quality bonds. A 6 percent return would net them $10,500 in income.

The remaining 60 percent, or $300,000, could go into a professionally managed stock mutual fund providing competitive total returns. Withdrawing 6 percent from the total return could add $18,000 to this couple's income, for a total of $29,500. If the fund's total return is more than 6 percent, the excess can be reinvested to keep the couple's principal growing.

This is just one example.

Check with your investment representative for suggestions and hypothetical examples of how different funds have performed during a variety of market conditions. A careful balance of prudent risk, distribution of assets and appropriate investments is the formula for a financially sound retirement. Your investment professional should help you devise a formula that will work for you.

Farm Credit Bank reports strong third quarter results

The Farm Credit Bank of Texas (FCBT) and its affiliated lending associations has reported strong third quarter financial results, highlighted by record loan volume for the 81-year history of the lending cooperative.

Loans outstanding totaled $4.256 billion at Sept. 30, 1998, up from $4.046 billion at Dec. 31, 1997. This growth in loan volume is due primarily to a $197.1 million increase in the long-term mortgage portfolio since year-end 1997.

Loan credit quality remained high with overall acceptable credit quality for the district at 97.3 percent at quarter-end. High-risk assets decreased 15.9 percent from $67.9 million at Dec. 31, 1997, to $57.1 million at Sept. 30, 1998.

Combined net income of $65.8 million for the nine months ended Sept. 30, 1998, was 8.6 percent higher than the $60.6 million reported for the same period in 1997.

Net income for the quarter ended Sept. 30, 1998, totaled $19.3 million. Contributing to the bank's strong financial results was a $9.9 million increase in net interest income for the nine months ended Sept. 30, 1998, compared with the same period of 1997.

The bank and its affiliated Federal Land Bank Associations and Production Credit Associations reported assets totaling $4.7 billion at Sept. 30, 1998. Together, these lending cooperatives comprise the Tenth Farm Credit District, the largest lending organization serving the states of Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi, New Mexico and Texas.

Nationally, the Farm Credit System reported combined net income of $342 million and $1,008 billion for the three and nine months ended Sept. 30, 1998, respectively.

This compares with combined net income of $328 million and $935 million for the same periods in 1997.

SBA loan deadline Nov. 30

If you're waiting to settle your insurance claim before you turn in your completed SBA disaster loan application, you're going to miss the Nov. 30 application deadline. Applications will not be accepted after that date.

"Problems with settling your insurance claim is not a valid reason for failing to turn in your application by the deadline. Insurance settlement information is not necessary for us to process your application and SBA will not accept your late application," said SBA regional administrator Billy Max Paul.

To date, SBA has approved $21.1 million in low-interest disaster loans to Mississippians affected by Hurricane Georges. Of that total, $14.2 million has gone to Jackson County victims, followed by $5.8 million for Harrison County and $563,400 for Hancock County disaster victims.

SBA staff remains available to answer questions and help complete your application at:

—SBA's Disaster Field Office, Gulf Coast Coliseum and Convention Center, 2350 Beach Blvd., in Biloxi, open Monday-Friday, 8 a.m.-6 p.m.

—Hancock County Courthouse, Office of the Chancery Clerk, 152 Main Street, Bay St. Louis, open Monday-Friday, 8 a.m.-5 p.m.

—Old Pascagoula High School (science annex), Dupont Street in Pascagoula and —Charles L. Walker Community Center, 4010 West Beach Blvd., Gulfport, open Monday-Saturday, 8 a.m.-5 p.m.

If anyone has still not registered for assistance through the FEMA tele-registration unit, you should do this immediately. You can register by calling 1-800-462-9029. You have less than two weeks left to register and get your completed application turned in for consideration.

Coast residents to benefit from special mortgage program

Mississippi Home Corporation (MHC) will issue $26 million in mortgage loan funds under its Mortgage Revenue Bond (MRB) program for first-time homebuyers, beginning Nov. 23.

Although the mortgages will be available to Mississippians statewide, new features recently added to the program will be of special interest to residents on the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Due to the destruction of Hurricane Georges, President Clinton designated three Mississippi counties, Hancock, Harrison and Jackson, eligible for emergency federal disaster assistance for long-term recovery.

County income and acquisition limits, and first-time homebuyer rules for three counties have been revised effective Sept. 28.

Following the disaster declaration, MHC was authorized to revise its MRB guidelines to waive the first-time homebuyer requirement, raise the qualifying income limit, and increase the maximum purchase price allowed.

These changes in the MRB program will make it easier for Coast residents to purchase homes with little or no out-of-pocket expenses.

For these targeted areas, a family with no more than two members could have an annual income of $42,960 and a family of three or more $50,120. The maximum acquisition cost varies based upon location and whether the principal residence is new or existing.

The temporary maximum acquisition cost for a new residence in the targeted three counties is $132,333 for a new residence, and $95,234 for an existing residence.

The new guidelines will be in effect for two years from the date of the disaster declaration. The provisions expire Sept. 28, 2000.

Persons interested in the program should contact a lender that offers loans under the MRB program. A list of participating lenders can be found on MHC's web site at www.mshomecorp.com, or by calling MHC at 1-800-544-6960.

Concerned Citizens to Protect the Isles and Point, Inc., the Bay St. Louis Community Assn., Inc., the Gulf Islands Conservancy Inc., and Protect Diamondhead Quality, Inc. filed the latest suit charging the CMR's decision was "arbitrary and capricious." Maness countered that the suit was "pure harassment and filed to deny the civil rights of the people of Hancock County."

Plaintiffs noted that "Mr. Maness had no specific project and without a project, the CMR could not make any determination on the factors...."

Judge Teel said there were several factors that the CMR needs to address for future casino development. Specifically, Teel said the CMR may go against recommendations of its staff, but... "the CMR should in its findings clearly enunciate why its investigative bureaucratic arm is not being followed...the Court would note (further) that...agency actions be supported by "substantial evidence" in order to pass the arbitrary and capricious test...."

Teel said, "Although the CMR voted to approve the application, the findings read into the record by Commissioner Lee were not approved by majority vote or acclimation and, so, just stand as his reasons for his vote in the record." He said the CMR needs to address for the future whether approval of a casino site can be allowed even though there is no project on the drawing board.

The Judge said he also felt plaintiffs were not given proper notice when the Maness group came before the CMR for reconsideration on the rezoning issue.

Maness told the Echo he was disappointed by the ruling, but his group plans to go before the CMR again when the agency meets Dec. 15.

Site — Pearl River to fight

ed both proposals and had discussions with both developers.

The Authority said its decision to enter into negotiations with the Mississippi Waste was due to the size and composition of the site, the geological data, the experience of the proposer and the economic benefits offered in the company's initial proposal.

Once the resolution was passed, Bay St. Louis Mayor Eddie Favre offered another motion, which instructs the Board's consultants, Compton Engineering, to begin drafting an amendment to Hancock County's Solid Waste Plan. And, the Yorks agreed to bear the expense of having the plan amended.

That motion passed, along with another motion to have Authority Attorney Lucien Gex screen candidates, and choose an attorney who will help him draw up a contract for a landfill, in the event negotiations are successful.

Chairman Rocky Pullman said during the negotiations he would insist that no garbage trucks come off Hwy. 43 onto Flat Top Road. He later told the Echo that he would try to limit the number of garbage trucks accessing the site through Hwy. 607, which runs through the Stennis Space Center.

Former State Sen. Margaret "Wootsie" Tate was restrained and respectful when she addressed the Authority, saying she "appreciated the fact that you're willing to talk with us."

But, she told them, she has serious problems with the site that was chosen, since Pearl River's Central Landfill in Millard was only about 20 miles away from the Flat Top Road site.

"I have some real, real regrets and qualms about using this buffer zone for this purpose when people have paid taxes on this property and cannot use it," said Tate, who is also fighting the proposed expansion of the landfill at Millard.

Tate claimed a landfill would lower property values in both counties, and some property owners had already put their land up for sale. She said, "Realtors are getting real upset.

You're going to ruin Pearl River County's real estate market. This is serious to us, and I don't know how it's going to come out, but I'm going to be vocal about it."

Tate appealed to the Authority to begin serious negotiations with Harrison or Pearl River County with the idea of creating a publicly-owned and operated regional landfill. She said a landfill should not be privately owned, and the buffer zone land shouldn't be used for some firm to make a profit.

William R. Jackson, who said he owns land in Pearl River County near the site, said the Authority should have looked elsewhere in the buffer zone before selecting the Flat Top site. "It seems to be a giant step without a whole lot of discussion," said Jackson.

He said he has a fish pond, a vegetable garden and a Christmas tree farm, and children frequently come on his property to enjoy what is offered. He said children often play in the streets.

"If we have (garbage) trucks going up and down, that all ends," said Jackson.

Authority Commission Tommy Kidd took exception with Jackson's accusation that the decision was made without public input and in haste.

Kidd said the Authority advertised for anyone to come forward who had property in the buffer zone suitable for a landfill, and only two developers made proposals. He added that all meetings with proposed developers were "open and public," except recent closed-door sessions that "were necessary in order to get us this far. We've been working on this a long time. We've done everything we legally had to do," said Kidd.

Pullman told those in attendance that the negotiations were still not a done deal, and the Authority reserves the right to terminate negotiations with the developer if talks reach an impasse. That's why Curtis Johnson, the other developer, was told not to take his proposal

Landfill

After the presentation from Hancock officials, Pass Christian Mayor Billy McDonald said a Hancock-Harrison partnership looks promising.

"We're at a negotiating point now," said McDonald. "We had a real good meeting with them (Hancock officials), but there's still a lot left to do."

McDonald, who serves as chairman of Harrison's Solid Waste District, said his board authorized him to meet with Dr. Bennett York, president of Mississippi Waste, and with representatives of Browning-Ferris Industries (BFI), which now hauls Harrison County's household garbage to the Pecan Grove landfill off Menge Avenue.

That meeting is scheduled for Dec. 1, and will also include the District's attorney Lynn Blackwell and Kamran Pahlavan, the director of the District.

McDonald explained that Harrison County still has two years to go on its hauling contract with BFI, and the key to the partnership concept with Hancock County depends on whether BFI will extend the current contract, and keep the cost close to the $16.75-a-ton now being charged.

Using the Hancock County landfill means that BFI trucks would have to haul the garbage 26 miles more than it's currently transported.

McDonald seems to think the partnership with Hancock County could work out. "The only thing that will stop this is the cost," said McDonald.

Following the Dec. 1 meeting, McDonald will brief his District at a Dec. 3 meeting.

off the table, just yet.

Johnson also came to the defense of the Authority and said, "All meetings were open."

Pullman said his estimate was, a landfill is still at least two years away. The state Department of Environmental Quality must still approve the contract and the landfill plans, and public hearings would be held before a permit to proceed can begin.

Only 260 acres of the 700-acre site is set aside for landfill purposes. The Yorks propose to initially open up a 70-acre landfill with a lifespan of 25 years, then a Phase 2 development calls for a 190-acre landfill. They are also proposing a rubbish site and recycling center near the entrance to the landfill, which would be available to residents free of charge.

HMC volunteers donate record number of hours

Hancock Medical Center Auxiliary volunteers were recently honored at Diamondhead Yacht Club for service during the last year. Nearly 12,000 hours demonstrate a steady climb in the annual cumulative time worked by Auxiliarians, according to Director of Volunteer Services Theresa Bourgeois.

A highlight of the luncheon was the presentation of a $6,500 check to the hospital as fulfillment of a $10,000 pledge. President Clarice Gustin presented the check to HMC Board of Trustees President Rev. Charles R. Johnson and Administrator Hal Leftwich. The funds will furnish a new pediatric playroom in the Women's and Children's Pavilion, said Leftwich.

He commended the dedication and scope of service performed by Auxiliary members, who work in numerous departments hospital-wide in addition to operating the gift shop and vending machines.

This year's total hours represent the annual work of six full time employees, said Leftwich.

The volunteers draw on a wealth of talent and experience from many different careers. Auxiliary members staff the information desks in the front and outpatient lobbies, manage the gift shop, perform clerical tasks, take blood pressure, help with admissions and in many other areas.

Nine or 10 volunteers work exclusively with one department, such as dietary, surgery, cardiopulmonary and materials management. Some 57 active auxiliary members meet the daily needs of the hospital. In addition, the auxiliary has 14 associate members.

Eight people responded to a call for additional volunteers during the past year. All completed extensive orientation sessions and are now active members. They include: Ann Cuevas, Patsy Robinson, Dot Hamann, Sandy Garber, Nathalie Miller, Joan Stott, Ruth Ross and Gene Pubentz.

Receiving recognition were: 50 Hours Patch—Ann Cuevas, Sandra Garber, Dot Hamann, Beverly Kelly, Nathalie Miller, Patsy Robinson, Betty Sharpe, Jane Snouffer and Margie Welsh.

100 Hours Pin—Judith Allin, Ann Cuevas, Betty Cutler, Sandra Garber, Dot Hamann, Beverly Kelly, Patsy Robinson, Betty Sharpe, Jane Snouffer and Rita Warren.

300 Hours Pin—Joan Lee, Patt Moore, Elaine Sconza, Marjorie Thomson and Margie Welsh.

500 Hours Pin—Mary Gilmore, Jerrie Guidroz, Mamie O'Quinn and Kathy Speed.

700 Hours Pin—Lillian Lott and Margie Schultz.

1,000 Hours Pin—Alice Seckson and Alice Winchester.

1,250 Hours Pin—Clarice Gustin, Harriet Reightler and Margaret Smith.

1,500 Hours Pin—Gertrude Helwig and Bea Lorenzen.

2,000 Hours Pin—Beverly Mahe.

2,250 Hours Pin—Randolph Bourgeois and Billie Tudury.

2,500 Hours Pin—Dot Zimmerman.

2,750 Hours Pin—Dottie Corales.

3,000 Hours Pin—Shirley Clemons and Betty Kielty.

8,000 Hours Pin—Theresa Bourgeois.

Officers for the current year include: president, Billie Jean Niver; vice-president, Sandra Garber; secretary, Dot Zimmerman; treasurer, Jerrie Guidroz; parliamentarian, Shirley Clemons; volunteer director, Theresa Bourgeois; activity chairman, Betty Kielty; and sunshine, Edna Kleinpeter.

Since Nov. 1, 1986, when the HMC Auxiliary officially began recording hours, some 85,390 hours have been donated by generous residents. Anyone wishing to volunteer, or for information, call Theresa Bourgeois at 467-8795.

8,000 hours

Director of Volunteer Services Theresa Bourgeois reached a record 8,000 hours of volunteer service in 1998.

Over 2,000 hours

MILITARY MENTIONS

AIRMAN VONTOURE

Navy Airman Robert E. Vontoure, son of Robert Vontoure of Bay St. Louis and Alice M. Fant of Waveland, is currently on a six-month deployment to the Mediterranean Sea and Arabian Gulf aboard the aircraft carrier USS Dwight D. Eisenhower.

While deployed, Vontoure's ship earned the Allen G. Ogden Award for being the best afloat crash and salvage aircraft carrier.

The award culminated an arduous training cycle in 1997 in which 618 crash, fire and mishap drills were conducted.

Vontoure and fellow crew members were trained to combat emergencies while reducing casualties, ensuring pilots the greatest chance of survival during a mishap.

In addition, Vontoure and crew members had the opportunity to visit France, Greece, Italy, Spain and Turkey were crew members participated in community relations projects in the host countries.

The 1995 graduate of Bay High School joined the Navy in August 1995.

PO2 BEERS

Navy Petty Officer 2nd Class Matthew S. Beers is scheduled to be deployed to Yokosuka, Japan aboard the guided missile frigate USS Vandegrift.

Beers' ship is a combatant ship designed to protect amphibious expeditionary forces, underway replenishment groups and merchant convoys from undersea attack.

In addition to torpedoes, frigates carry helicopters that have sonar and torpedo capabilities, expanding the ship's reach.

Beers joined the Navy in August 1992.

WEDDINGS, ENGAGEMENTS

Stepro-Lachin

Mr. and Mrs. David Stepro

Laura Jean Lachin of Waveland and David Wallace Stepro of Bay St. Louis were united in marriage October 31 at Southern Oaks Plantation in New Orleans with the reception immediately following.

The Reverend Benjamin L. Wren performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mrs. Jean Lachin Heibel and the late Mr. Victor Guido Lachin, Jr. The groom's parents are Mr. William K. Stepro of Jeffersonton, Ky. and the late Mrs. Frances Stepro.

Given in marriage by her brother, Victor Guido Lachin III of Gulfport, the bride wore a formal gown of white Italian satin in a traditional style. Hand-clipped embroidered Madeira lace outlined the V-neck and back and decorated the long sleeves. Satin buttons cascaded down the back above a butterfly peplum and soft bow. The basque waist gave way to a full skirt and chapel train, and Madeira lace bordered the hemline. Her small tiara-style headpiece was formed of Madeira lace with attached fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a cascade of white roses with star gazers, stephanotis and English ivy.

The bride was attended by matron of honor Dr. Daphne Glindmeyer of New Orleans. Bridesmaids were Ellen Lynch Palmer of Spring, Texas, and Diane Tilton Knott of Venice, Fla.

The bridesmaids each wore a two-piece formal gown in royal-blue silk shantung. The fitted jacket featured an open neckline, fitted waistline and peplum flare at the back above a floor-length slim skirt. Pearl jewelry accented the ensemble. They carried peach roses, peach alstroemeria and white caspra with green foliage. Best man was the groom's father, William K. Stepro. Grooms-men were James Varnell, Police Chief of Waveland, and James Goss, Chief Investigator of the Waveland Police Department.

Ushers were Edward Favre, Mayor of Bay St. Louis, and Frank McNeil, Police Chief of Bay St. Louis.

The wedding was hosted by the bride's aunt, Miss Anna Laura Miller of Waveland, who wore a two-piece ensemble in ice-mint crepe-back satin. The floor-length dress featured a satin-banded sweetheart neckline. The removable long-sleeved jacket was edged with satin banding. Her accessories complemented the gown.

Miss Barbara Rappold of Waveland was the reader. Mrs. Audrey Schuh Redmann of Covington was the vocalist accompanied by Mr. Brian Hymel of New Orleans.

An engagement garden party was hosted by the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Victor G. Lackin III of Gulfport. Mrs. Paul LaViolette of Waveland gave a linen shower for the prospective bride at her beach home in Waveland.

A High Tea was hosted by Dr. Daphne Glindmeyer, matron of honor, at the Windsor Court in New Orleans to celebrate Miss Lachin's forthcoming marriage.

A supper was hosted for the engaged couple by the bride's aunts, Mrs. Gloria Mouldedoux, Mrs. Lorraine Lachin and Mrs. Mary LeBlanc at Mrs. Lorraine Lachin's home in Mandeville.

The rehearsal party was held at The Bridges in Bay St. Louis. Mrs. Lucien Gex hosted the bridesmaids' luncheon at Armand's in Waveland.

Following a wedding cruise to the Caribbean, the couple will reside in Bay St. Louis.

MCV training scheduled

The Mississippi Clothing Volunteers (MCV) from the coastal counties missed a training due to Hurricane Georges.

The training has been scheduled to begin 1 p.m. Nov. 30 and conclude Dec. 3.

The training will be held in the Harrison County Extension Office. There is a $25 fee. This will be pay back training time by volunteering to teach or help with the sewing classes.

The participants must be proficient in sewing techniques.

Trussell-Kosbab

Mrs. and Mrs. James Trussell

Salesha Ann Kosbab of Bay St. Louis and James Raymond Trussell of Hattiesburg were united in marriage August 1, 1998 in an afternoon ceremony in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church in Bay St. Louis with Monsignor Joseph Mercier officiating.

The bride's parents are Wendy and Robert Tucker and the late Richard E. Kosbab. Her grandparents are Eloise and Robert Hynes of Pass Christian.

Parents of the groom are Arlyn and James Trussell of Hattiesburg. His grandmother is Mabel Trussell of Hattiesburg.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Kevin Kosbab, and her father, Robert Tucker.

For the occasion the bride selected a white sleeveless satin gown featuring a slim skirt with detachable train. The V-neckline and arm openings were accented with pearls. The bodice of the gown featured lace heavily beaded with pearls. She wore above-elbow-length lace gloves and carried a cascading bouquet of white roses and flowers interspersed with greenery.

Maid of honor was Sheila Kosbab.

Bridesmaids included Emily Coker, Michelle Johnson, Kelly Seale, Kim Schambach, Sherri Thomas and Karen Trussell.

Each bridesmaid was attired in a champagne sate-crepe floor-length sheath dress with sleeveless bodice and jewel neckline. The skirt featured a wrapped waistline crossing from front to back, ending with three crystal buttons. The maid of honor also wore above-elbow satin gloves.

Honorary bridesmaids were Lashell Lightell and Kristie Pearce. Flower girl was Kaylen Kosbab, and ring bearer was Justin Kosbab.

Best man was Jamie Forrester, and groomsmen included Chad Daniel, Kevin Kosbab, Jack Perniciaro, Damien Smith, John "Bear" Smith and Joel Trussell.

Ushers were Kendrick Ladner, Jay Mitchell, Ryan Stansbury and Eric Stansbury.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the parents of the groom, at the Holiday Inn in Waveland.

The bride was honored with four miscellaneous showers given by her bridesmaids, the grandmother of the bride, family of the groom, and the bride's co-workers.

The wedding was coordinated by Mrs. Beverly Brannon. After a wedding trip to Atlanta, Ga., the couple will reside in Hattiesburg.

Working on Anna's garden

Karrissa Kendrick, left, and Brittany Keely add sonet pink snapdragons to the begonias, Mexican tulips, spring bulbs, spider ferns and native pink azaleas donated last week for the flower garden in honor of Anna Caroline Love. Karrissa and Brittany are just two members of the Team Kid Club who participated in a work day at Diamondhead Baptist Church to create the Anna Caroline Love Nature Trail and Prayer Garden. Anna was killed in an automobile accident earlier this year. The club members, along with many volunteers are working to create the garden in her memory.

Compromises help divide family time

By Linda Breazeale
MSU Ag Communications

Managing the holiday tug of war between family homes can add enormous stress to a season intended to provide pleasant memories for years to come.

"Deciding where to spend Thanksgiving and Christmas is one of the toughest choices many families face during the holiday season," said Dr. Louise Davis, child and family development specialist with Mississippi State University's Extension Service. "Healthy compromises require honest and considerate communication."

Davis said planning ahead is the key to smoother holidays. Consider factors such as distance, economic ability, health, priorities and past choices will in advance of the holidays.

"Alternating between families may be a solution some years, but that can be hard to follow indefinitely," Davis said. "There aren't many families that can observe consistent traditions year after year the way the previous generations enjoyed them. We're just too mobile and face too many external demands."

As children are added to families and health becomes a factor, compromises become even more important.

"Everyone needs to be willing to sacrifice their ideal holiday family gathering. Be open to continuing traditions in different homes," Davis said. "Don't let a sour attitude spoil everyone's holiday season."

One potential pitfall of compromises occurs when the same person or family compromises every year. Some people are more giving and willing to compromise, but that doesn't mean they are the only ones who should make concessions. Stubborn people should not always have their choices.

"Silent sufferers still suffer. Eventually, resentment can build to unbearable levels," Davis said. "Don't assume everyone is happy. Discuss decisions thoroughly to make sure everyone has been reasonably satisfied."

Church celebrates anniversary

Little Zion Baptist Church, 510 Central and Baker streets in Waveland, the Rev. Timothy J. Johnson Sr., pastor, will celebrate its 93rd year church anniversary Sunday, Nov. 22 at 11 a.m.

The Rev. Percy L. Davis, associate minister of Sweet Home Missionary Baptist Church of Louisiana will be the speaker. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Local dancer selected as member of American All-Star Performance Team

Bay Junior High student Felicia Crosby, daughter of April Crosby, has been selected to the American All-Star Performance Team.

Team members will travel to Disneyland, Paris, in November on an International Goodwill Performance tour. The 300-team members were selected from a field of 15,000 performers throughout the United States. The troupe will perform in the Videopolis Stage in Disneyland.

During their stay in France, the team will enjoy a panoramic city tour of Paris and will travel to the Palace of Versailles and the Louvre.

Selections to this outstanding international performance team is an honor reserved only for those students who most exemplify that energetic, young American "spirit." Criteria for selection includes positive mental attitude, advanced dance technique, good moral character, leadership, appearance and scholastic achievement.

Advertorial

Advertising is an investment in the success of your business. Every business has some kind of competition, either within the town, nearby city or from mail-order firms. Your potential customers are being courted by your competitors. If you do not invite those customers to do business with you, they are likely to forget you and buy elsewhere. It is not uncommon for consumers to switch their trading from one store to another. Advertising helps to keep old customers and equally as important, make new ones.

Our community is constantly growing which means that potential customers are moving into the market area all the time. Advertising gives these newcomers a reason to visit your store.

Most businesses budget for their advertising expenses just as they do for other necessities such as rent, phones, etc. Smart business people realize that advertising is imperative to keep their business growing.

Another reason to advertise is that advertising is news! You profit by telling our readers what is new in your store. Through advertising, you can let a wide audience know the product lines you carry, the quality of your merchandise, the completeness of your service and the character of your store.

If you have something to sell, then you have something to advertise. When you have nothing to advertise, you are out of business. Advertising is designed to build your business and works best when it is repeated regularly. Consistent advertising pays off!

Now that you know some of the reasons to advertise, you're probably wondering how you can advertise most effectively. Surveys show that ads in local newspapers have more impact than in any other medium. The Sea Coast Echo goes into the majority of the homes in Hancock County. The Sea Coast Echo is full of interesting reading, it is a part of our community. People like to read about people and The Sea Coast Echo is full of pictures and stories about local people. The most important reason to advertise in The Sea Coast Echo is that our readers are your customers.

If you are looking for the best advertising value for your money, then you should contact the advertising department at The Sea Coast Echo. One of our advertising representatives will be happy to discuss the many advertising options offered by The Sea Coast Echo. For more information you may call 467-5474, Monday - Friday from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM., or stop by our office at 124 Court Street, Bay St. Louis.

Since 1892, The Sea Coast Echo is proud to be a part of your community.

TRAVEL & ENTERTAINMENT

Holiday events scheduled in and around Jackson area

Dec. 3-23: Christmas at the Old Capitol.

Highlights of this popular series of holiday exhibits will include a giant tree adorned with Victorian ornaments; small trees decorated with ornaments typical of the Antebellum, Victorian and Depression eras; and the Old Capitol Train, which travels through a miniature Mississippi railroad town of the 1940s.

Free to the public. For information, call (601) 359-6920.

Friday, Dec. 4, 5-8 p.m. Candlelight Tour.

Enjoy the Old Capitol Museum's Victorian-era Christmas decorations by the glow of candlelight. Free transportation available to candlelight tours at the Manship House Museum and the Governor's Mansion. Steel Magnolia Trolleys will make the circuit of the three sites beginning at 5 p.m. at the Old Capitol.

For information, call (601) 359-6920.

Friday, Dec. 4, 7 p.m. The Northside Singers of Northside Elementary School will entertain visitors during the Old Capitol Museum's candlelight tour.

Sunday, Dec. 6, 3 p.m. The Cotton Blossom Singers of Piney Woods Country Life School will perform holiday favorites accompanied by a harpsichord, a recorder and a dance troupe. Free to the public.

Sunday, Dec. 13, 3 p.m. The St. Andrew Cathedral Choir will perform traditional music for Christmas and Advent. Free to the public.

Sunday, Dec. 20, 3 p.m. the Northwest Rankin High School Choir will perform holiday favorites. Free to the public.

Friday, Dec. 4, 5-8 p.m. Candlelight Tour.

Wander through the candlelit rooms of the historic 19th century house admiring the authentic Victorian Christmas decorations and traditional arrangements of greenery.

Free transportation available to candlelight tours at the Old Capitol Museum and the Governor's Mansion.

Magnolia Trolleys will make the circuit of the three sites beginning at 5 p.m. at the Old Capitol.

For information, call (601) 359-6920.

Friday, Dec. 4, 5-8 p.m. Candlelight Tour.

Traditional holiday decorations adorn the historic mansion, which will be open to the public for candlelight tours.

Free transportation available to candlelight tours at the Old Capitol Museum and the Governor's Mansion.

Magnolia Trolleys will make the circuit of the three sites beginning at 5 p.m. at the Old Capitol.

For information, call (601) 359-6920.

Dec. 12-20, Children's Victorian Christmas.

Visit Historic Jefferson College, the first educational institution in the Mississippi Territory, to view Christmas trees decorated with Victorian-style ornaments crafted by fifth-graders from the Natchez area.

The college is open Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. and Sunday, 1-5 p.m. (closed Dec. 24-25).

For information, call (601) 442-2901.

Vietnamese performers entertain at Biloxi Grand Theatre

Grand Casino Biloxi welcomes a group of Vietnamese singers, dancers, musicians and comedians for "A Thanksgiving Day of Celebration" at the Biloxi Grand Theatre on Thursday, Nov. 26, at 9 p.m.

The entertainers include Tuan Anh, the Vietnamese "Boy George," who has performed at Caesar's Palace, Taj Mahal, and MGM Grand. He performs traditional Vietnamese music and some American music. Carol Kim began her musical career in 1968 singing in clubs in Vietnam. Thanh Tuyen strikes a chord with country music, singing along the lines of Tammy Wynette. Coming to the Mississippi Gulf Coast for the first time, directly from France, is Tuan Hung.

Phuong Mai and Chi Tam are well known in Vietnamese communities for the opera singing.

Magician/comedian Ngoc Minh delights audiences with his Charlie Chaplin act and popular emcee/comedian Viet Thao is often compared to Billy Crystal.

The co-emcee is Hanh Phuoc, who is "Mrs. Vietnamese All Nations." Quoc Duong and Thuy Van were world finalists in International Ballroom dancing competition and will demonstrate their unique dancing style. They own the Starhall Dance School in California and have over 1,000 students.

Tickets are on sale at the Biloxi Grand Theatre for $24.95 and $34.95 if purchased before show date. Ticket prices on the day of the show are $29.95 and $39.95.

For information, call the Biloxi Grand Theatre Box Office at 1-800-WIN-2-WIN, ext. 2804.

Jackson Zoo receives pygmy marmosets

The new jewels have arrived for The Jewels of South America exhibit at the Jackson Zoo. The new arrivals include pygmy marmosets, Kuhl's marmosets and smoky jungle frogs.

The pygmy marmosets are the smallest of the new world primates currently maintained in zoos. They live in small family groups from Peru to Brazil and adults weigh a mere 5-7 ounces, even though they are 7 inches long with a 7-inch tail. The smoky jungle frog is similar in size to our native bullfrog.

These new arrivals add to the new Jewels of South America exhibit which opened Sept. 5 and also includes blue poison dart frogs, dyeing poison dart frogs, a walk through bird aviary and a collection of colorful snakes.

The Jackson Zoo is open daily 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Admission prices are adults $4; children (3-12) $2; children 2 and under and Friends of the Zoo are free.

For information, call (601) 352-2581.

The "WORD" for the Week

Dennis J. Prutow, Box 303, Sterling, KS 67579

Cosmos indicates order. Chaos is the opposite. The cosmos is the universe. A universe denotes unity. Does something or someone hold the created order together? Hmm, are we dealing with a created order? Is there a Creator who brings order to the cosmos?

The earth and the other planets in our solar system maintain regular orbits around the sun. The earth rotates on its axis with impeccable regularity. The stars within our galaxy, the Milky Way, maintain their anticipated locations. The electromagnetic and gravity fields within the solar system are predictable. We easily launch communication satellites. We send rockets to distant planets to take pictures and record data.

God is there

Why all this order? Does it indicate the presence of an all wise Creator? When we see a pastel painting we may recognize it immediately as a Monet. When we see a rugged, realistic painting reproduced on a calendar, we recognize the work of Norman Rockwell. The artist and his work are inextricably connected. They cannot be untied or disunited.

Look around. So it is with the universe and the Creator. For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood through what has been made, so that they are without excuse" (Romans 1:20). "The heavens are telling of the glory of God" (Psalm 19:1).

Community Thanksgiving Service set at Main Street Methodist

The annual Community Thanksgiving Service will be held at Main Street United Methodist Church, 162 Main Street, Bay St. Louis, Tuesday, Nov. 24, 7 p.m.

All local churches will be participating in this special service. Father Francis Theriault of the St. Rose de Lima Church in Bay St. Louis will deliver the sermon.

Music will be provided by Rev. Ronald Skinner of the Word of Faith Christian Fellowship in Waveland, along with the St. Rose de Lima Gospel Choir.

A special offering will benefit the Hancock County Emergency Relief.

Refreshments will be served at the reception immediately following the service.

Final products

Art examples

Methodist youth participate in project

"Jars of Clay" was the theme of the Main Street United Methodist Youth Fellowship project held Oct. 18 on the church grounds.

Under the artistic direction of Tammy Estapa, the youths expressed their creativity with model clay during one of their weekly meetings held each Sunday, 5-6 p.m. in the Multi-purpose Building, 162 Main Street, Bay St. Louis.

Junior and high school youths of all denominations are invited to participate in the weekly discussions and activities.

Refreshments are served.

For information about Main Street's youth program, contact the church office at 467-3438.

ST. ANN-ST. JOHN NEWS

Thoughts for meditation:
To speak to God on behalf of man is probably the highest service any of us can render. The next is to speak to men in the name of Jesus. Either is possible, through His grace.

—Ten Boom

You have to count on living every single day in a way you believe will make you feel good about your life — so that if it were over tomorrow, you'd be content with yourself.

—Seymour

Of all the means which wisdom uses happiness throughout the whole life, by far the most important is the acquisition of friends.

—Epicurus

To preserve a friend three things are necessary: To honor him present, praise him absent and assist him in his necessities.

—Unanimous

The friend given you by circumstances over which you have no control, was God's own gift.

—Frederich Robertson

CCD, CYO and RCIA classes are held each Monday afternoon at the regular times.

Votive candles to St. Jude can be lighted any time of day at your convenience by visiting St. Ann Church through the chapel entrance.

Parish Office Hours

Monday, noon-5 p.m.
Wednesday, 9-4 p.m.
Thursday, 9-4 p.m.

The parish of St. Ann, Clermont Harbor, and St. John, Lakeshore, would like to encourage more adults to become lectors, greeters and eucharistic ministers.

Appropriate training for each ministry will be given.

Call Father Kelly at 467-4746 if you are interested in volunteering for any of these ministries.

St. Ann-St. John Parish is pleased to welcome Althea and Julius Schaefer and also Susie Ballard to the parish family.

It's Not What's On The Outside That Counts

Quite a few years ago, while beginning work on the railroad during one summer vacation from high school, I was told to see the company doctor for the required physical. Going directly there, I told him that I had not had a chance to wash and clean up. The doctor said that he understood and that "it's not always what is on the outside of a person that matters." He gave me a minimal physical and sent me back to work. That was probably the first time that I realized that we have a tendency to judge people by their physical appearances. Of course, it's important to be clean and neatly groomed and dressed, but we should be careful not to judge others only by their physical appearances. We are all children of God, and the Bible tells us that God judges us by what is in our hearts and not by our outward appearance.

...Man looks at the outward appearance, but I look at the heart.
